

K-Love has given me an alternative to secular music stations with a variety of positive and inspiration music.
If K-Love was to be displaced there would be no alternative radio station that plays continual Christian music.
I believe that the community is serviced by K-Love as they provide good clean music with an inspirational tone.